PRESBYTERIAN
Church of the Cross

November Activites lead the way to Advent!

We have many activities and mission opportunities available to push our Legacy Forward this season. Check out some of the opportunities available below if there is anything you can commit some time to this Advent season!

Remembrance Service Sunday, November 1, at 4:00 p.m

Our church's Cross Care Connections program is reaching out to members and families to come and remember your loved one during our annual afternoon service in our Sanctuary. You are invited to stay after the service for continued fellowship at a reception in the Welcome Center.

Fall Clean-Up Saturday, November 7, from 9 am to Noon.

All members are invited and welcome to participate! Bring your garden gloves, pruners, rakes, shovels, and trash barrels! If you have a chain saw that would be helpful this year as well. We will rake leaves and debris to spruce up our landscaped areas to prepare our grounds for the winter season ahead. TREATS, juice and coffee will be available for fellowship. Your help will be very much appreciated! Thank you!

'Tis the Season SHF Fundraiser Lunch is November 15.

All ages – the young and the young at heart – are invited to join us for this SHF fundraiser on Sunday, November 15 at Noon. This continues to be one of SHF's biggest fundraising events of the year, supporting their summer mission trip. You can learn more and view available crafts on page 4.

Vesper Concert on November 15

Adam Hu and Friends take the stage the evening of November 15 at 7:00 p.m. (originally scheduled for November 13). You can learn more on Page 5.

Hanging of the Greens on Saturday, November 28, at 10:00 a.m

All are invited to help us decorate the Sanctuary at the Hanging of the Greens. Our Sanctuary is such a beautiful place during the Advent and Christmas season. It takes many hands to make it that way, and we hope you can help us! We'll hang evergreen garlands and bows and decorate trees on November 28 at 10:00 a.m. Festive music for the season and sweet treats will make for a fun morning. All ages are welcome!

Let's Finish up our Stewardship Campaign

As we turn the calendar page to November, we find ourselves wrapping up our Stewardship Campaign for 2027 as we think about next year. To those who have already done so, thank you for sending in your commitment cards. It is trite but true – everybody's commitment really matters - especially yours! We need everybody's commitment card.

As our Moment for Stewardship speakers kept mentioning, each Christian is called to support God's activity through the church. We are blessed to be part of a congregation which gives 20% of our total pledged amount to mission. We have a beautiful campus to maintain. We have quality education programs for children, youth, and adults. Our music program is well received and well supported. We are a mix of long time and brand new members. We keep attracting new members who jump right in and find their niche to serve. We are blessed by God in so many ways.

Recommend Candidates for PCOC Leadership

November is the time of year when the PCOC Nominating Committee asks for your help in identifying candidates for positions opening in 2027 for Elder and Deacon. The committee is searching for individuals who have demonstrated gifts for leadership and a commitment to the life and ministry of our congregation. The easiest and quickest way to nominate someone is by filling out a form online from our website. You can also volunteer to be considered yourself.

Those elected to the office of Elder comprise the Session, which is the governing body of the church. The Session is responsible for providing for worship and the administration of the Sacraments: Baptism and Communion; receiving new members; leading the congregation in mission; providing for educational ministry, pastoral care, and fellowship opportunities; and stewardship. Responsibilities include: attend monthly Session meetings, lead or serve on one or more Session committees, participate in serving Communion on designated Sundays. Each year 8 elders are elected to serve a 3-year term of service.

Deacons are the caregivers of the congregation and are sometimes referred to as "the heart of the church." Responsibilities include: attend monthly board meetings, serve on some of the deacon sub-groups including the annual Advent Dinner. Each year 8 deacons are elected to serve a 3-year term of service.

The belief that the people of God are called to be leaders is at the heart of the Presbyterian way. In our form of government, church members choose leaders to represent them. Please help our Nominating Committee to discern who our new Elders and Deacons will be!

Tuesday Bible Studies

The Tuesday Bible studies continue to study 2 Corinthians. Feel free to join in, either at 7:00 a.m. (men) or at 1:00 p.m. (everyone). Just bring your favorite Bible and come to the Welcome Center,

Thanks be to God for Abram

With the coming of November should come thoughts that revolve around all the things we're thankful for. And of course I am thankful for so many things: family and friends, our church and my faith, too many things to list here. But what has been on my mind a lot lately is the gift that comes with reading the Word of God alongside other believers. What the Word looks like from someone else's vantage point continues to be a gift that not only shapes and changes my understanding of a given text, but one that shapes and changes my faith in return; an experience with the Bible that I could not create on my own, an incredible reminder of one of the reasons why we are called by God and the Book of Order to be a Community of Faith.

As I consider such experiences, I cannot help but recall our last Cornerstone semester when the revelation of others led to my own revelations about Adam and Eve in the Garden (I remain convinced after reading it with some of our members that it is an eternal tightening of concentric ironic circles – of which I'm not sure I could ever truly arrive at the bottom) and the Tower of Babel (wrestling with the wisdom of our faiths' forerunners to include such a wildly juxtaposing text alongside the rest of the ancestral narratives – truly, it sticks out like such a sore thumb, but there remains much to be learned from said sore thumb).

As I consider such experiences further, I cannot help but think of this Cornerstone right now, and how the experience of reading about Abram and Sarai with others – all the vastitudes of fate that befall them again and again; all of God's grace that befalls them again and again; and all of the tension and, quite frankly, weirdness that comes with all of their adventures – has led me once more to deeper insight and faith.

And so it has been over the past couple weeks in considering Abram and Sarai with others, and on my own, again and again that I cannot help but be thankful and overwhelmed by two overarching, revelatory themes: first, that when we try to solve our own problems instead of walking the path that God has laid before us, we make a mess of things (and yet still grace abounds); and second, that even when we are unaware of God's presence, God continues to make a way for us, even when God is doing it tangentially.

The first revelation comes from considering Abram and Sarai's adventure into Egypt to flee famine and Sarai's instruction for Abram to have a child with Hagar to secure progeny. Both cases involve promises God has made: promise of land/nation and promise of seed/offspring. Succinctly, Abram abandons the promise land because of famine; Sarai loses her patience in waiting for a child – chaos and jeopardy ensues both times – and yet God does not give up on them and instead finds ways to turn their errors into blessings.

The second revelation comes from considering what the Word of the Lord (Christ) says to Abram after he's feeling a little lost and discouraged in a vision – "I am the Lord who brought you out of Ur" (Gen. 15.7). This is one of the most profoundly lowkey things said in the entire Bible – and that's because if we're paying close attention, we'd recall that God led Terah out of Ur and unto Haran, not Abram. What God is saying then in this moment is that I've been with you the whole time, long before you were ever aware of it, guiding you your entire life. It's an absolutely incredible moment.

Friends, as we navigate this month of great thanks, I pray that you can look back as I can at the moments of your life in which you errored greatly and yet God blessed you beyond measure in return; I pray that as you look forward you come to see and know the God who has been with you long before you knew it to be true; and I pray that all of this happens in the good company of family and friends who share in your faith.

Join us for an Advent Study

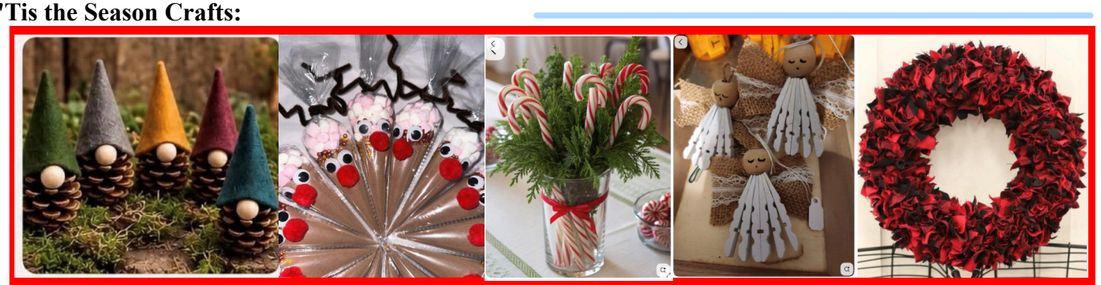

Advent in Plain Sight
Sundays at 10 a.m.
Tuesdays at 7 p.m. on Zoom
November 22 – December 13

In this daily devotional for Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany, Jill Duffield draws readers' attention to ten ordinary objects that appear in the biblical narratives of messianic prophesy and incarnation – objects we encounter in our own lives. Readers will find new meaning in the biblical account of Jesus' coming. By connecting everyday objects with biblical texts, readers see the near kingdom of heaven on earth and ponder what that divine proximity enables and asks them to do and be. Each daily devotional features Scripture reading, prayer, and reflection, reminding Christians that God still dwells among us, even in the most ordinary places. Register online by November 1.

'Tis the Season Workshop and Fundraiser Lunch

All ages – the young and the young at heart - are invited to join us for this SHF fundraiser on Sunday, November 15 at Noon. This continues to be one of SHF's biggest fundraising events of the year, supporting their summer mission trip. Next year they're going to Rimrock Camp in Rapid, South Dakota. Come for lunch and stay for crafts! We're introducing activities that encourage full family participation. There will be one shut in craft, one family craft, and three other crafts. Each one has been thoughtfully chosen so everyone can enjoy creating together.
We hope to see all generations join us for this special fundraiser.
Please be sure to register online by November 1 to reserve your crafts.
If you have any questions, please contact Heather.

Advent is the Runway of Hope

Submitted by Shanna Mathia

Each year, on the first Sunday of December, the deacons of PCOC, together with many other committees' participation, take great joy in planning, preparing, and serving the Advent Dinner following the Christmas Pageant. It is a cherished tradition that welcomes our church family into the season of hope and expectation.

The deacons see this as an all-hands-on-deck event, as it is the largest regularly scheduled meal we serve annually, typically in excess of 225 attendees. The planning begins weeks in advance as deacons gather to choose the menu, set a budget, organize shopping lists, and divide responsibilities so that every detail is covered. As the date draws near, they coordinate with other committees, purchase food, chop and prep the food, and set the tables the Saturday before the dinner. On the day of the dinner, the entire board of deacons work side by side in the kitchen, cooking, stocking the buffet table, and dessert tables and serving each guest with love before cleaning up together once the evening ends.

Each Advent Dinner weekend, the deacons set aside their entire weekends to prepare and serve this dinner. Their service is more than a meal; it is a living expression of Christ's call to serve one another, creating a time of fellowship, gratitude, and anticipation as our congregation prepares to celebrate the birth of our Savior. If you have never attended an Advent Dinner, we highly encourage you to sign up in November and attend on December 6th.

Congregational Life is Changing!

Congregational Life has a new name. FELLOWSHIP AND HOSPITALITY. It was decided that our committee name was not indicative of what we actually did. So...FELLOWSHIP encompasses events such as the Annual Meeting, Pancake Man, VBS lunch, Trunk or Treat (the healthy nourishment part), Staff Welcomes and Farewells, Advent Dinner decor and any additional events that we may be called upon to plan. HOSPITALITY would include recruiting greeters for Sundays and other events when needed, manning the Information Desk in the Welcome Center, scheduling Deacons and Elders for Sunday Coffee Hosting and we can't forget delivering the cookies and donut holes each Sunday for Fellowship Hour. If you enjoy great conversation while decorating themed tables, cutting fruit and veggies, plating breakfast pastries & desserts and sometimes even making soup and chili, then this is the committee for you. We meet at 4 PM the first Tuesday of each month in the Welcome Center class room. Everyone is welcome. Come see what we are all about. We would love more helping hands and creative minds joining our Fellowship and Hospitality Committee.

The Mission Committee Mailbox

The Mission Committee would like to share with you some of the mail we receive every month from the organizations which are the grateful recipients of your generosity. Below are the latest thank you notes we have received:

-Rev. Mary Beene, PCUSA Office of Stewardship & Funds Development Stewardship Officer, thanks you for your $2,060 June 2026 gift that supports Shared Mission and which purchased a piglet, a rainwater catchment system, an improved cookstove and a refugee food basket from the Presbyterian Giving Catalog.

-Pastor Chelsea Salifou, CEO of Heartland Hope Mission thanks you for your contributions of $745 and $335 that provides working poor families with a week's supply of groceries, which includes fresh produce, meat, milk and hygiene items. Your gift also allows families in need to have access to clothing, household items, and an opportunity to meet with a Client Service Specialist to receive navigational services, SNAP (food stamp) application assistance and connects them to Heartland Hope's Job Paths program.

-Thank you for your support of Omaha Welcomes the Stranger and its families of migrants and asylum-seekers. These families and the volunteers of OWS are grateful for your generosity.

-Voices for Children thanks you for your support of their September fundraiser "Raise Your Voice."

Spotlight on the Libary

In the Spotlight

Submitted by Sue Kiel

"Out of the Seats and Into the Streets" by Ron Dotzler is the story of ABIDE, the non-profit begun in Omaha in 1989. Ron and his wife Tawny were living a suburban lifestyle in West Omaha. When they felt called to mission work, they planned to serve in Africa or another third-world country. God had a different plan, and instead planted them in North Omaha. The North Omaha map was divided into neighborhoods. Next, ABIDE purchased condemned or abandoned homes which volunteers then renovated. Families were recruited to move in and be the advocate for their neighborhood. Each home was called the neighborhood "Lighthouse". By 2015 21 homes had been transformed. Some police reports have shown a 75% reduction in the crime rate in areas where the Lighthouse family support and encourage their neighbors. Ron includes stories of young people, whose lives had been filled with trauma and dysfunction, developing leadership in an environment of love. In the Bible, Jesus doesn't ask us to sit in a pew on Sunday morning. Jesus asks us to love our neighbors and serve those who are in need…. Taking Christ's love Into the Streets.

Please Join us for our November Agape Outing

I Am A Man, Joe Starita, author
Sunday, November 22 from 2:00 – 3:00 pm
Central Library at 7205 Dodge,
Community Room C

We will be attending a speaker session at the Central branch of the Omaha Public Library at 7205 Dodge in Community Room C, on Sunday, November 22nd from 2:00 – 3:00. Author, Joe Starita will be speaking about his book "I Am A Man". This book (which is in our library) chronicles the Ponca Chief Standing Bear's 600-mile Journey for Justice, returning the body of his deceased son to their tribal burial ground in Nebraska after the Ponca tribe was exiled to Oklahoma. We have reserved sixteen seats for the event and have eight people signed up so far. If you are interested in joining us, please sign up online or at the Information Desk. We will carpool from the church, leaving the North parking lot by 1:30.

If November 22 doesn't work for you, he will also be speaking at the Abrahams Library location, 90th & Fort, on Monday, Nov 9 from 6:00 – 7:00 pm. You could sign up by either calling the Abrahams branch or registering online with the Omaha Public Library.

We do have this book in our Agape Library if you want to borrow it. To prepare for that event, you may also want to enjoy a lovely fall visit to our own Standing Bear Lake at 6404 N 132nd. This plaque is a beautiful memorial to Chief Standing Bear's life and the lake is a lovely, peaceful place to visit.

One more November opportunity you may enjoy:

Braver Angels Family & Politics Workshop
Saturday, November 7th from 9 a.m. – Noon
Saint Luke United Methodist Church
120 & Davenport Parking Lot

St. Luke United Methodist Church has partnered with us on several Agape events. They have invited us to join them for a workshop to help gain skills to prevent political disagreement from ruining your appetite (or your relationships). This is scheduled the weekend after the mid-term elections and prior to holiday dinners with family and friends. It is intended to help participants preserve relationships while staying true to their values and political beliefs.

We will not be attending this as a group. I don't know yet if I can attend. It is just an opportunity that some of us may want to take advantage of. The event is free. Pre-registration is required. Seating is limited so please use this QR code or go to BraverAngels.org/events and search by event date. Questions? Email kekeller@braverangels.org.

Giving Tree Benefits Local Children in Need at HHM's Annual Christmas Event

Believe it or not, you will be seeing a Christmas tree in our narthex by the end of November. This Giving Tree will be decorated with green and red paper angels with gift suggestions for local 11 - 15 year old boys and girls whose parents will not have enough funds to buy presents for their children this Christmas.

The tree will be set-up and decorated by our JHF by Sunday, 11/22 and remain up until Sunday, 12/06. Please take a paper angel from the tree and shop for the 11 -15 year old boy or girl, returning the unwrapped gift by Sunday, 12/06. HHM is also requesting rolls of Christmas wrapping paper to be donated.

All of the gifts will be transferred to Heartland Hope Mission to be organized by sex and age group on tables for parents to shop for their kids at one of several scheduled Christmas celebrations. An adopt-a-family option will also be provided through their website.The parents will be taking home a turkey or ham for their Christmas dinner, along with their gifts and wrapping paper.

Many volunteers are needed to sort gifts, organize tables, and work at the scheduled Christmas events. Soon, volunteers will be able to sign-up on the HHM website at https://heartlandhopemission.org. It is very gratifying to volunteer for this meaningful event and volunteer slots fill up quickly.

Thank you for continuing to support this special annual event commemorating the birth of Jesus.
